Sumter lawyer suspended by hi

COLUMBIA (AP) — By a 4-1 vote, a Sumter lawyer who pleaded guilty to criminal sexual conduct with a minor was suspended indefinitely by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

Rodney McDowell Sprott, 32, who was employed by the law firm of Weinberg, Brown and McDougall, pleaded guilty to two indictments in May 1985. The first charged Sprott with second-degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and a lewd act upon a child.

The second indictment charged the former scoutmaster with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The children involved were a 13-year-old boy and his 16-year-old brother.

Sprott was sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $6,000 for the first indictment. The sentence was suspended to one year in jail, a $3,000 fine and five years of intensive probation.

As a special condition of that sentence, Sprott was required to deposit $4,000 to be held by the Sumter County clerk of court for up to five years. The fund was set aside for the use of the victims and their families for psychiatric or psychological evaluations.

On the second indictment, Sprott was sentenced to three years, suspended to a year and five years probation.

Sprott is serving his sentence at the Sumter County Correctional Center.

Witnesses appearing before an earlier hearing panel on Sprott's behalf included William A. King, a psychiatrist who has been treating Sprott; House Speaker Ramon Schwartz; Jacob H. Jennings of Bishopville, a former president of the South Carolina Bar; Assistant 3rd Circuit Solicitor Thomas L. Bultman; Jerry A. Hyatt, director of the correctional center; and Reuben B. Marlowe, the pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church.

King diagnosed Sprott as a pedophile, someone who has sexual desires toward children. The disorder, while treatable, is an incurable psychiatric condition, he said.

Several of the character witnesses, including Schwinnings and Bultman, testified they were unaware of any wrongdoing by Sprott and had enjoyed a reputation and integrity since he began law.

Chief Justice Julius N. Ness dissented in the majority Monday, saying the punishment Sprott was too light. Ness should have been disbarred.

"We do not discount the possibility that at some future time he may be able to conquer his condition and return to the practice of law," the majority opinion said. "At that time, he should be permitted to hold himself out to the public as a practicing lawyer."

"Disbarment would eliminate the possibility of his ever re-

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Angus:

Thank you for the material which you recently sent us concerning Rodney Sprott, Scoutmaster of Troop 336. This material will be most helpful to us as we set up a file.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet, which I would like for you to complete so that we can more easily identify Mr. Sprott, should he try to register in some other location, at a later time. This should be completed as fully as possible, so that we have all the personal information which might be needed by someone else reviewing this situation.

We would also like you to keep us informed as this situation comes to trial. We need to know the disposition of the case and any sentencing which takes place.

Thanks for your help in this way.

Attorney charged with sex abuse

A Sumter attorney is being held under $35,000 bond today after his arrest on charges of criminal sexual conduct, attempting or committing a lewd act upon a minor and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Rodney M. Sprott, 31, of 18 Park Ave., was arrested yesterday afternoon by investigators of the police department's youth division. He was charged with one count of second degree criminal sexual conduct, one count of attempting or committing a lewd act and two counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

According to police records, three of the charges stem from incidents reported by a male juvenile that allegedly occurred between September 1983 and December 1984. The fourth charge involving another person stems from an alleged incident in November 1982.

Police said the investigation began in mid-February when the parents of the victims registered a complaint. No more charges are expected.

Bond was set yesterday afternoon by Circuit Judge Ernest A. Finney Jr.

JURORS

CONF002975

Personally appeared before me, judge of the Court, one Eugene T. Mosier who being duly sworn, deposes and says that Rodney M. Spratt (name of defendant) did within this County and State ~~on~~ from Sept. 83 - Dec. 84, violate the criminal laws of the State of South Carolina [or ordinance of the municipality of SUMTER] in the following particulars:

DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE

Committing to Attempting Lewd Act Upon Child Under Fourteen in Violation of Section 16-15-140 of the 1976 S. C. Code of Laws, as amended

I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and such probable cause is based on the following facts:

The above named defendant did wilfully and lewdly commit a lewd act upon the body of a white male, less than 14 years of age, all with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust, passions or sexual desires of the said defendant. Said offense having occurred numerous times at 18 Park Ave., in the City and County of Sumter, State of S. C. Probable Cause: another victim, older brother of the above mentioned victim, has stated to Law Enforcement Officials that the above named defendant admitted to him that he did commit sexual acts with the minor (13 year old), this occurring from the Fall of 1983 through December 1984. Further, the white male, less than 14 years of age, has given a verbal statement to Law Enforcement Officials regarding these allegations.

Sworn to and Subscribed before me.
